Spirit-filled voices echoed in the gymnasium

Spirit-filled voices of the cheerblock, T-Club, and the cry for Mr. Cronk echoed throughout the gymnasium. The first pep session of the 1973-74 school year got under way with skits, chants and the music of the pep band which added excitement to the assembly.

Last year Taylor tried something new, a night time pep rally, which turned out a large crowd.

To brighten the cheerblock atmosphere, members made new plaid outfits and wore them to every pep session. The cheerleaders showed a new mount they learned at camp while the Seniors boys and faculty led the rest of the student body in Two-bits.

This new drive of spirit and enthusiasm helped to lead the football team to their first winning season and our basketball team to their second Howard County basketball title.

Homecoming Festivities Promote School Spirit

Students proved their spirit in the many homecoming festivities this year. The students attempted to organize a pep session on their own Friday at school before the game.

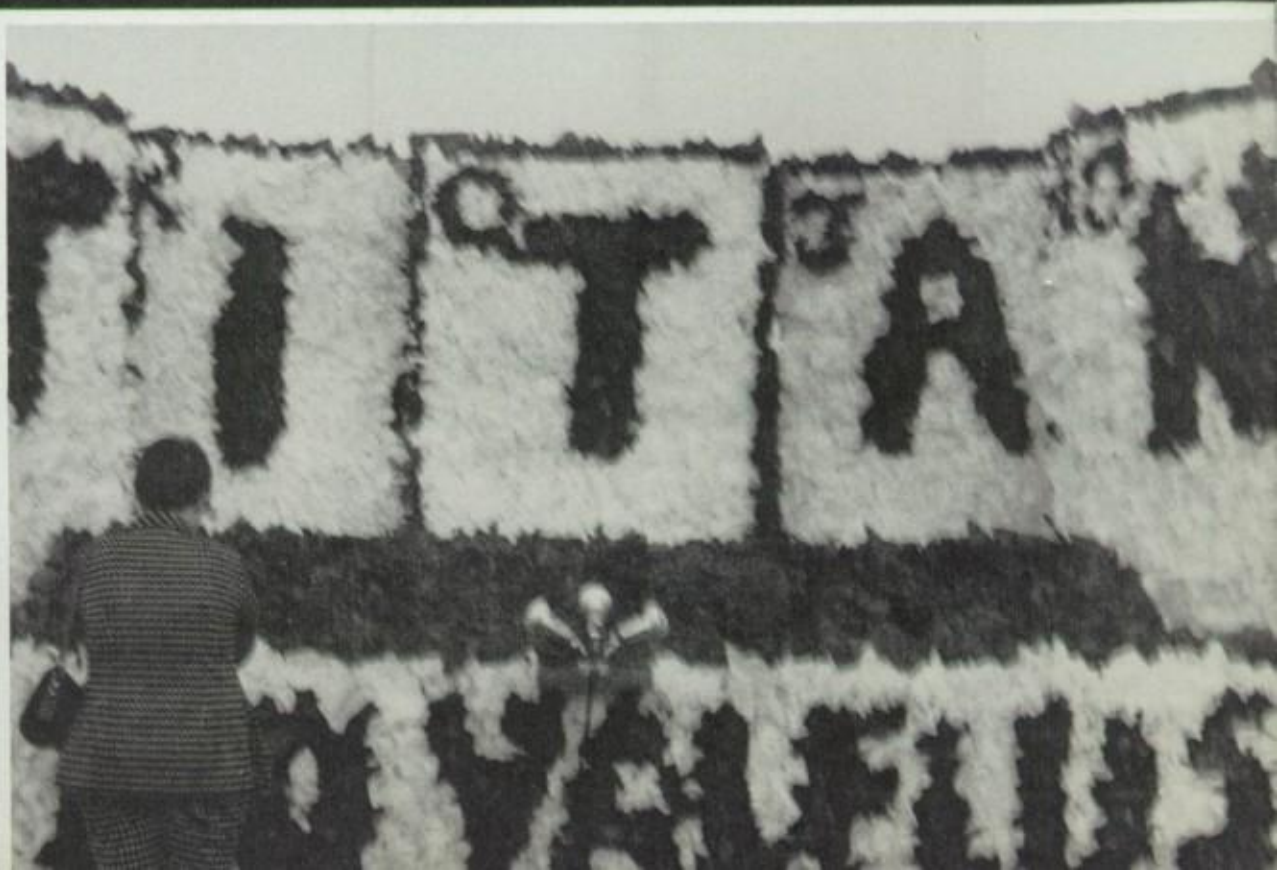

Starting off the activities, spirit signs and posters were plastered on the walls promoting the defeat of the Hamilton Southeastern Royals. GAA and cheerblock sponsored the annual powderpuff game with the seniors and sophomores victorious. On "Clash Day" students and teachers came to school in wildly colored and mis-matched clothing. "Nifty-Fifties Day" followed "Clash Day" reminiscing the past decades. The intercom blasted 50's music and students boogied down the halls during passing periods and in the cafeteria. Students organized a caravan at Indian Heights Elementary School for a bonfire and pep rally. Mr. Cronk auctioned off members of the cheerblock as slaves for a day at the bonfire.

The Taylor Titans blew the Southeastern Royals off the field for a victory as the crowd went wild. During halftime Donna Berndt was crowned Homecoming Queen. Members of the court were seniors Janet Delong and Debbie Wilcox, junior Monie Richards, sophomore Karen Beason, and freshman Dawn Appleton. "A Royal Flush," the senior class float won the float competition.

The student council sponsored the Homecoming Dance Saturday night with the theme being "Out-A-Space." A local group, the "Du-ba-zations" provided the music.

As summer yeilded to winter with it came our record snowfall of 22 inches.

Many snowbound mornings jubilant Titans crawled back into bed with the cancellation of school. Driving was halted and recreation was found in community snowball fights or shoveling away mountains of snow from long lost driveways.

Chrystalized trees were a common sight as an ice-storm candy-coated Taylor. Winter had proved it's superiority.

Beware! Titans Are Everywhere

Titan Happiness Is . . .

The mighty Taylor Titans surprised everybody by capturing its 2nd County Title in 3 years.

Taylor took its turn in hosting the tourney and proudly walked off the floor as champs by defeating the Comets and Tigers.

Even tho the other schools were against Taylor. Faithful fans, students, and adults, backed the Titans to victory.

The county tourney brought secret admirers . . . chants ringing thru the halls . . . tearful eyes . . . the rise in school spirit . . . sore throats . . . sweaty faces . . . cutting the net . . . the awarding of the trophy . . . HAPPINESS!

Candy canes, wooden soldiers made from clothes pins and painted windows of sugar plums and ginger bread houses expressed the theme "Candyland" of the Christmas dance.

The Midnight Brass provided the music while the honored guest, Santa Claus, skipped throughout "Candyland" distributing Candy canes and wishing the numerous couples a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

The suspense had grown to a peak when at last the Helio Staff crowned Debbie Wilcox Miss Titan of 1974.

Refreshments included punch, cookies, and candy served by several high school girls.

Let's Face It

Thespians Produce Two Great Plays

Memorizing and rehearsing lines aren't all there is to preparing for a play. Students, with the help of Miss Farris, Miss Lowery, and Mr. Lassiter, prepared stage props, lighting, costumes, musical background, makeup, audience seating, and ushering.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" was the first school production of the 1973-74 school year. Play positions were given to anyone who wanted to be in it. Thirty students were involved in the production.

K.C. Earle, Katrina Bliss, and Allen Hughes portrayed main characters in the comedy-drama play. K.C. and Katrina played the old aunts who believed in putting poor people out of their misery. Allen Hughes played Mortimer, the aunts' nephew who found out about the corpses in the basement. In the end everything turned out fine. The aunts were sent to Happy Dale, a sanitarium, and Mortimer went on his way. The grand finale consisted of everyone in the production of the corpses in the basement.

The Taylor Thespians performed their interpretation of Mame. The record-breaking cast consisted of approximately sixty people. There were over twenty-five songs sung by the cast and chorus which was directed by Mr. Charles Rose. The crew worked extra long hours after school sometimes until midnight under the direction of Mr. Lassiter. Along with a rebuilt stage the scenes were changed more times than ever. A new revolving part for the stage was also added.

There was a large selection of wardrobe for the actors to change more often. The costumes were taken care of by Miss Lowery and Miss Farris. The choreography of the production was made up and taught by Mrs. Gumz.

The play turned out to be a financial success. The cast performed Mame for the faculty and their parents preceeding a banquet. An audience at Tri-Central High School also enjoyed a performance.

Main characters of Mame were: Katrina Bliss as Vera Charles; K.C. Earle as Mame; Brad Bayliff as Ito; Scott Maple as Patrick; Stacy Hart as Agnes Gooch; and Brent Renfro as Beauregard Barnside. With their combined talents, Tom Badham on the drums and Dave Girton on piano provided the musical background.

Altogether the play had been worked on for two to three months and turned out to be very successful.

Student Walkout Backs School Staffers

At 12:30 huge masses of students gathered in the corridors and proceeded to walk out in support of Mr. Fernung and Mr. Harmyer. The students assembled in front of the school caring signs and banners. A few students were interviewed by the Kokomo Tribune.

Attentive ears listened to speeches given by Mr. Harmyer and Mr. Edmonds. Some students remained outside, but the majority reported back to class.

Foreign Exchange Club Has Busy Week

March 11-15 marked the fourth annual International week. Foreign exchange students from various parts of the world staying in central Indiana were invited to attend International Day held here at school.

Stocks were sold by student council and foreign exchange club members. The stocks admitted students into the slide program. Karin Hoyer, Debbie Huber, and Pam Smith showed pictures of their adventures abroad.

All throughout the week money was collected from students. The eighth graders, who raised the most money were admitted into the sock hop Friday night free. The dance featured the "Lead."

Fifty foreign exchange students attended the International Day on March 15. The students with Taylor student guides visited classrooms all throughout the day telling about their countries and answering questions. An all school convo was held sixth period. Various exchange students displayed their various talents.

Money raised throughout the week went to sending Steve Bucholz, Beth Pizarek, Carol Pride, Karen Spicer, and Marlene Tyler abroad as foreign exchange students.

The 4th Annual Spring Follies consisted of various acts; from musical entertainment to being eaten by a snake; a visit from Peter Cottontail to a best legs contest.

Sponsored by the Student Council, the follies gave any Taylor student or faculty member a chance to express his or her talent. The acts were screened by selected council members. Twenty-six acts were performed in a two and one-half hour convo for the whole student body, faculty, and alumni.

As an improvement of this year's follies, three stages were added instead of one. As a highlighted feature, the convo was interrupted as a "streaker" ran through the gym. The follies were jointly M.C.'d by Jan Beckom and Art Myer.

"Evening in Venice" was the theme of the 1974 Junior-Senior Reception. Murals, gondolas, and Italian food accented the theme of the prom. Sponsored by the junior class, it took place May 4 at the UAW Hall. Couples dined by candlelight on a meal consisting of Italian food. Afterwards were the readings of the class wills and prophecies. Students and faculty chaperones danced 'til midnight to music provided by the Smithsonian Institute. Midway through the dance Carol Lawless and Mike Sallee were named senior queen and king of the prom.

Harriers Keep On Truckin'

Titan Harriers finished the '73 season (4-6). The Titans ran first in the conference and third in the county.

Brian Maple, a top junior, completed this season as the top runner. Brian ran the 2½ mile course in 13:24, the best time of the harrier team. He also received the Most Valuable Player award. He along with Wayne Morris will be co-captains next year. Other top runners include: Senior, Jim Bledsoe; Junior, Wayne Morris; Sophomore, Norm Stevens; and Freshman, DeWayne Pavis.

Tennis Team Ends With Good Season

Coach Wise's, still young tennis team had a good season. They played tough competition such as Hamilton South-Eastern, and Kokomo.

The first five on the varsity team: Mike Wilson, Marty Thompson, Mike Sternamen, Andy Brittain, and Brian Cambell will all return with the exception of senior Mike Wilson. So Coach Wise should be able to have another strong team returning.

The team also sent four men to the sectional.

Gridders Have First Winning Season

This year several individuals on the football team as well as the team itself broke many school records. Grant Ellabarger broke Taylor's rushing record by running over 1,000 yards. Teamwise, Taylor defeated Western for the first time since the school's existence. One of the most important progress though, was that it was the first winning season the gridiron team has had, finishing with a record of six wins and four losses.

Young Titans Look Forward To Future

The seventh grade football team has high hopes for the future, although their record wasn't very decisive.

The "A" team compiled a record of two wins and four losses, and the "B" team, a winning season. Two wins, One loss, and one tie.

The eighth grade team finished with another winning season this year. The "A" team was very strong, with Joe Beason and Tom Wescott leading the team onto several victories. The "B" team did well also.

Cagers Prove Titan Power

Although the Cagers didn't have a winning season this year, they certainly proved their Titan power by recapturing the Howard County Tourney championship. This seemed to be the biggest and most important victory for our Titan cagers.

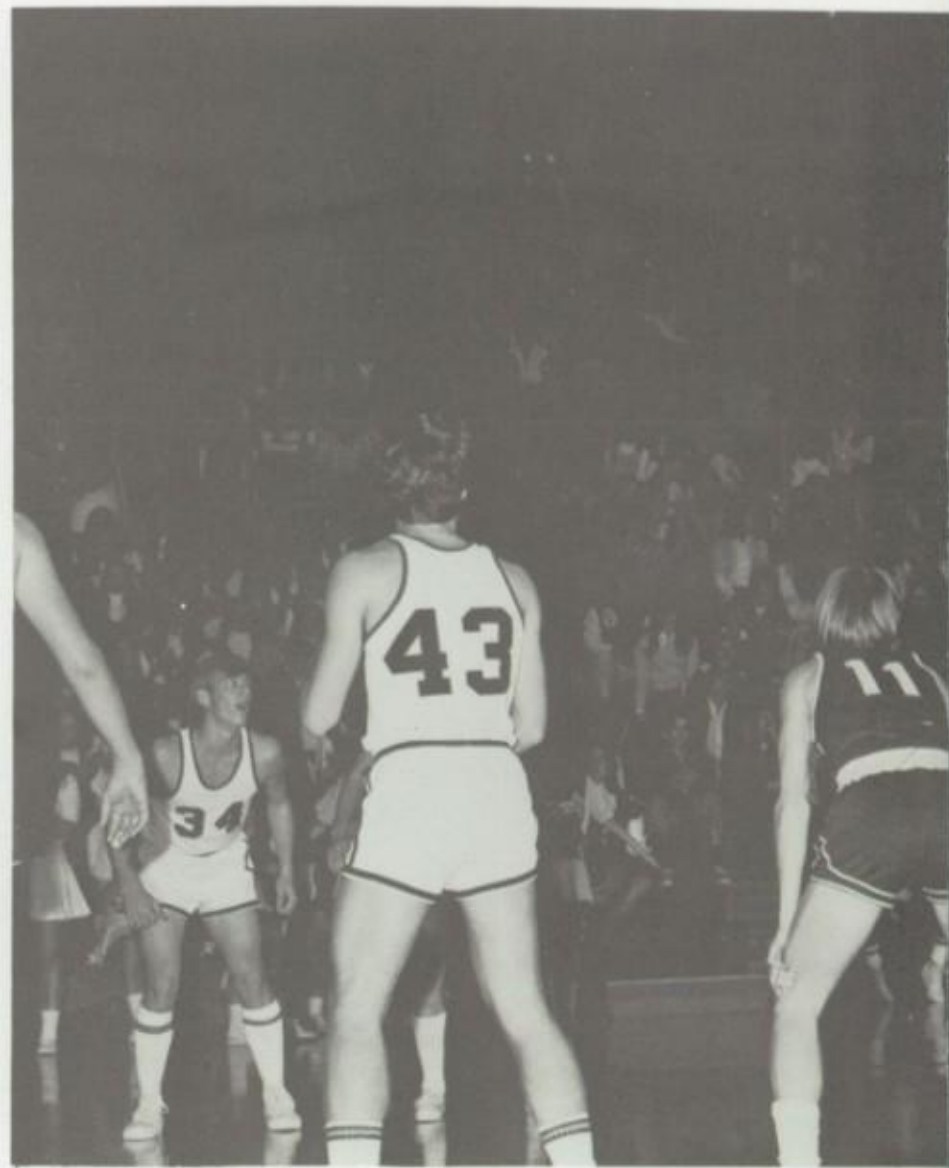

Teamwork proved to be the teams most important asset. Sophomore, Larry Kellar, leading in scoring and rebounds, also contributed greatly to the Titan victories.

With losing only two seniors, Mike Bentzler and Barry Appleton, the remaining team along with the promising upcoming players, next year should be the year for the Titans.

B-team Capture 12-8 Season

Coach Moon's cagers motivated his B-team players to a winning season this year. Their record was twelve wins, eight losses. The B-team Titans also placed second to Western in the Howard County Tourney.

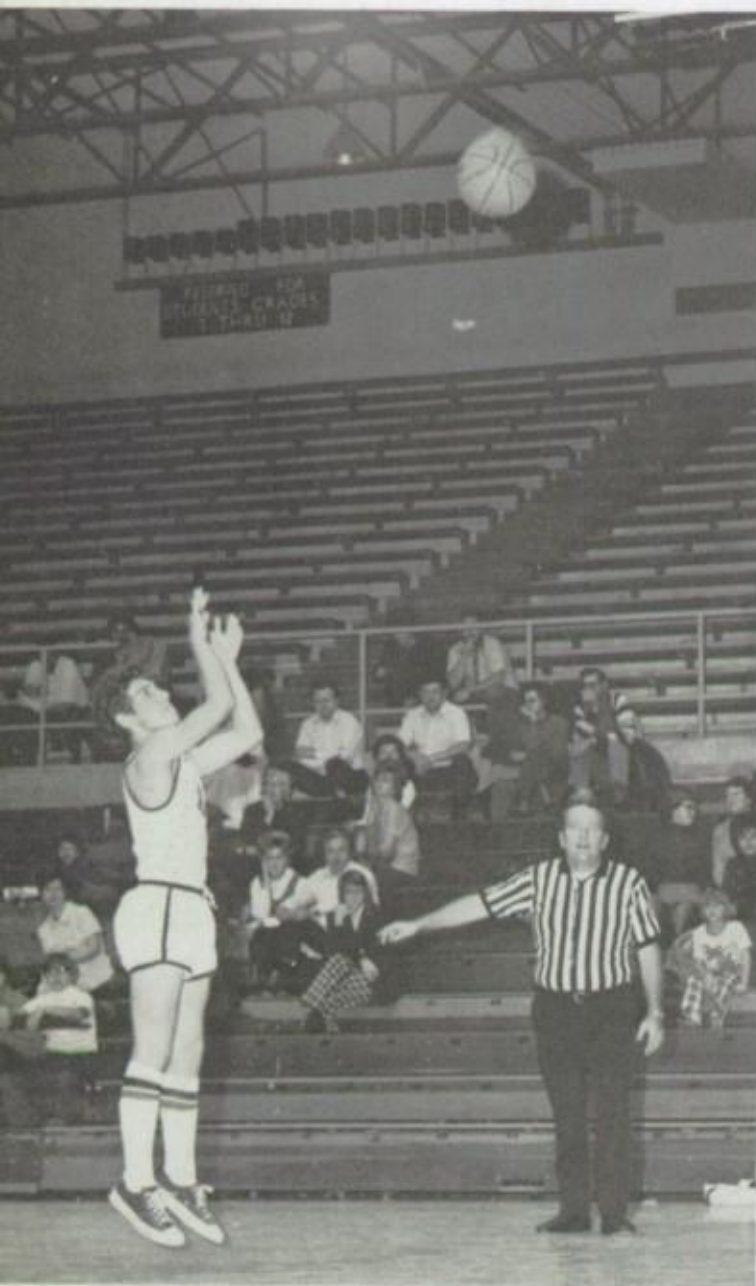

A new team developed at Taylor this year, the C-team. The new addition seemed to provide playing time for more players.

Frosh Beat Haworth For First Time

The Freshman had a fairly successful season this year. The "B" team finished their season with a record of five wins and four losses. The "A" team ended even on the season with a seven win and seven loss record. The highlight of the season was when they defeated Haworth by a score of 66 to 34, which is the first time Taylor has ever beaten Haworth.

Jr. High Draw Victory Seasons

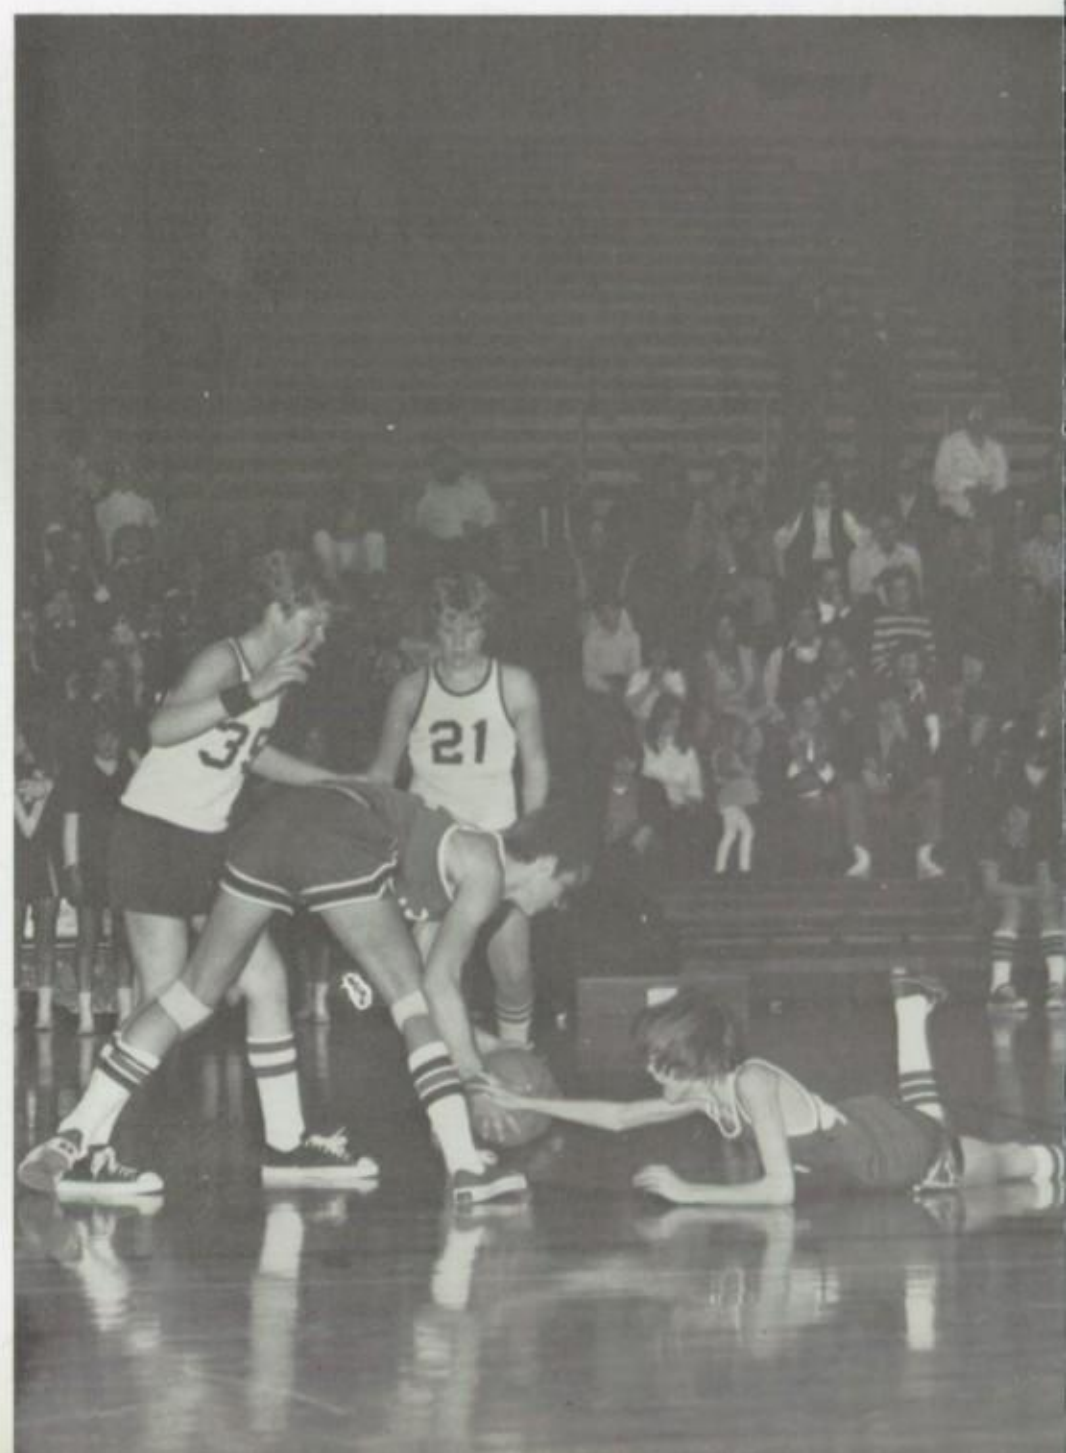

The seventh grade cagers were able to finish with winning seasons. The "A" team ended with nine wins, two losses. The "B" team went undefeated.

The eighth grade ballbouncers remained undefeated until they met Northwestern in the Howard County Tourney. In which they placed second. With fine teamwork, and Joe Beason leading in scores and rebounds, the cagers finished almost undefeated.

Matmen Finish With Winning Season

Titan matmen finished with another winning season. The team completed in duo-meets with six wins, four wins, and one tie.

The matmen not only did well in duo-meets, but also in tournaments. Taylor placed second in the Range-Line Conference, with five Titan champions. Taylor also placed third in the Howard County Tourney, with three champions.

We were proud to have three men, Art Meyer, Brad Baker, and Dan Keating, to journey to the regional. All were defeated but did a good job.

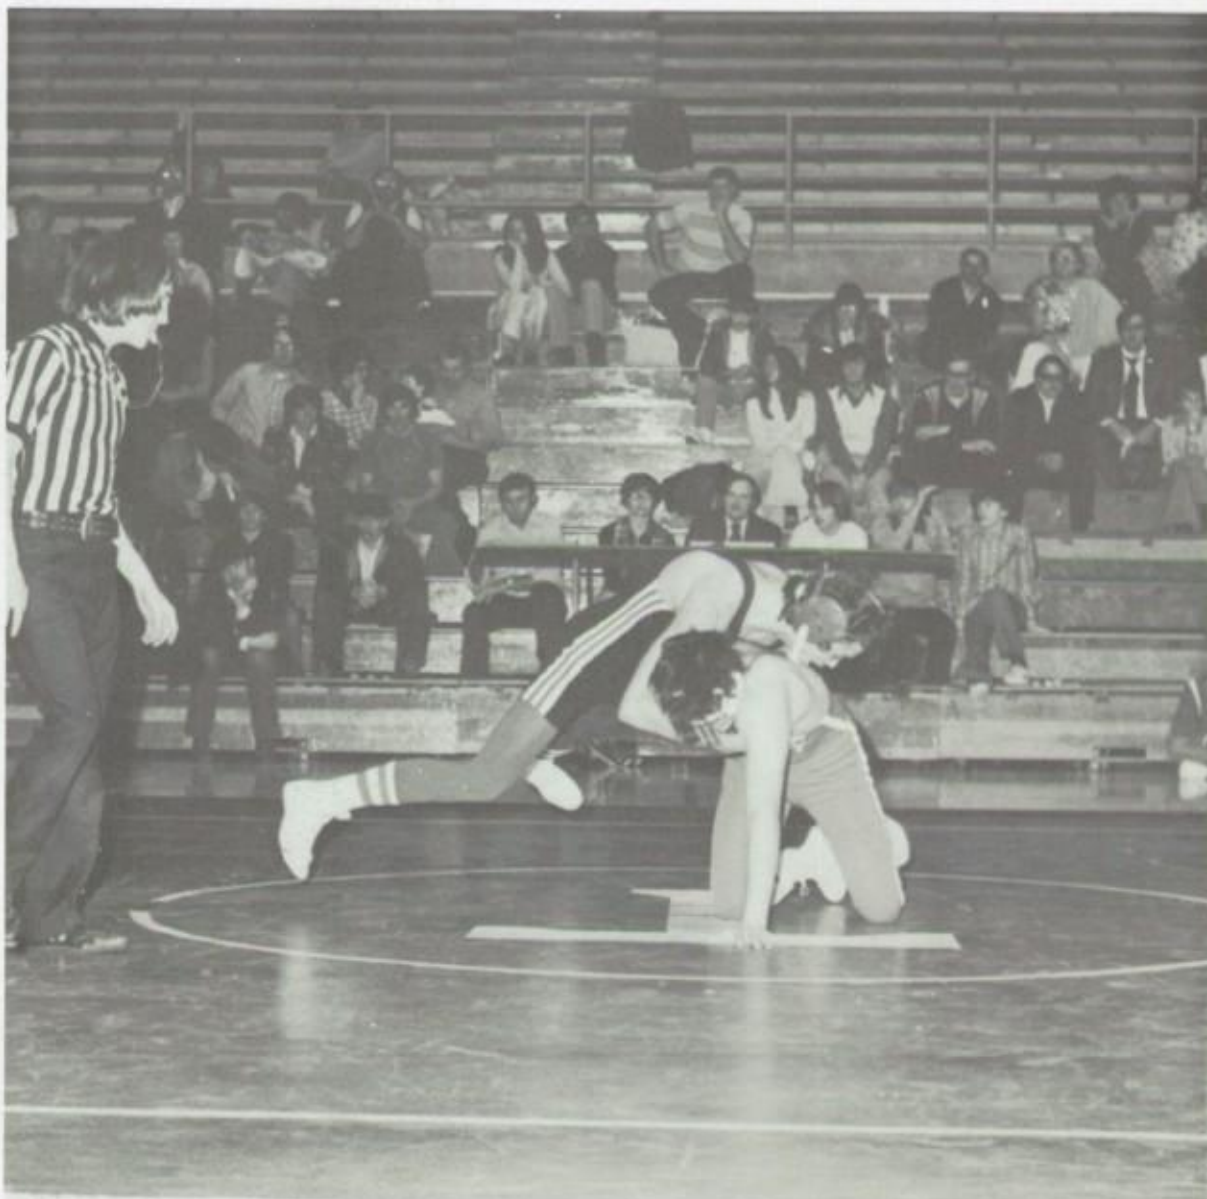

Art Meyer broke the duo-meet record by winning 22 consecutive meets.

Titan Trackers

Set New Heights

The Taylor thinlies finished with another impressive season. Competing in off season, indoor track meets really put the Titans in tip top shape.

Jeff Parkison, our fastest runner, really made the Titans shine. Parkison broke several records this year. He broke a record in the 100 yard dash, and the long jump. He also broke a record for the 220 dash in the county. Along with his records, other team members broke records. Some of these were: Brain Maple in the mile, Jeff Karns in the Disc, and Johnson in the high hurdles.

Grapplers Place Second In Tipton Tourney'

The Jr. High wrestlers finished a very successful year. They ended with a season record of one loss, three ties, and two wins.

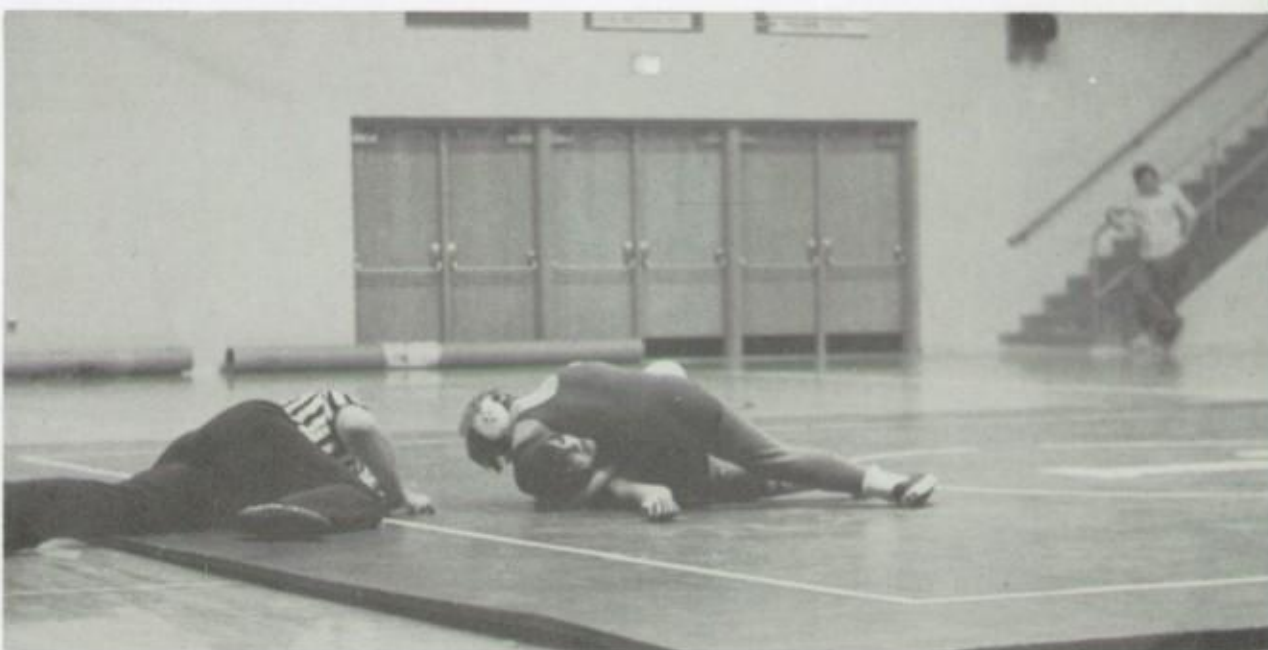

This year the grapplers placed second in the Tipton Invitational. This is the best showing Taylor has ever made. The grapplers also placed third in the Western Four-way Tourney.

Golfers Remain Conference Champs

The Taylor golf team didn't have its best season in the schools history; but you must take into consideration that all of the stroker's were underclassmen. Junior Alan Lutz, the teams' number one man, was chosen the most valuable golfer for the second year in a row. The team finished the season with a 6-8 record. The highlight of the season was when they won the conference for the fourth straight year.

Titans Begin Good Season

Although at this time the Titan baseball season is just beginning, the Taylor diamond contingent is really working as a team. So far, they have compiled a record of 3-3, breaking even.

The baseballers have a team full of familiar faces, losing only two seniors, and gaining a few new faces, the team should be quite a team. The Titans should be able to finish up with a winning season coming with the remaining 15 games.

Titan Competes In State Meet

The girl's track team finished with a very good season. This sport was another of the G.A.A. sports which became an I.H.S.A. Sport. This allowed all girls to compete instead of just G.A.A. members. Along with more competition among the team itself, they were also scheduled for more meets.

The team was very strong this year in several areas. They were especially strong in the running events. Denise Dezlan was the Only girl from Taylor to represent us in the Regional and State meets. She competed in the 440 yard dash.

The junior high track team also did well, and show some promise in a few upcoming freshman.

Girls' Volleyball Team Remains Sectional Champs

The girls' volleyball team boasted 18 wins at the end of their season while suffering only 5 defeats.

Junior Carol Dillman, captain of the 13-girl team, also lead the team in scoring. Three up-coming sophomores will fill the spaces left by the loss of three seniors.

The varsity captured two championship titles this season, the Sectional and the Range Line Conference. The B-team took the Howard County Championship, while the varsity ranked second.

G.A.A. Bowling and Badmitton Reveal Talent

G.A.A. badmitton and bowling are two of the only club sports left. These two sports enable individuals to reveal their own skill and talent in the sport.

The badmitton team had one girl to place in the State meet, Linda Randels. She placed third in the singles division.

The girls' bowling team also ventured to state and placed very well.

G.A.A. Cagers Compile 13-1 Season

The G.A.A. Cagers once again completed a winning season. Compiling a record of 13 wins, 1 loss, the girls demonstrated their athletic ability. The girls finishes 10-0 in the Conference, taking the Conference Championship. They also took the Howard County title.

Losing high score man, Linda Randels, and play maker, Ann Shirley, along with their height, Susan Strawbridge, the girls still have a few returning. Starters, Carol Dillman and Laura Brink, will return with a few upcoming players.

Gymnastics Become All Girl's Sport

Gymnastics became an I.H.S.A. sport this year. This opened it up to all high school girls, instead of just G.A.A. members.

The team has five meets. Finishing up the season 2-2, they placed second in the Peru-Northwestern meet.

The district sectional was held at Taylor. Thirteen teams were in the sectional. Our sectional was the largest in Indiana. Twelve members of the twenty-one member team qualified for the sectional.

Cheerleaders Boost Titan Spirit

Taylor cheerleaders deserve a lot of credit for their superb job of backing, that they did this year for the Titans. Being a cheerleader is not an easy task, it takes a lot of effort, ability, enthusiasm, and many sacrificed hours.

Varsity, B-Team, and Freshman, cheerleaders attended summer camps. All squads placed well in competition. Cindy Wilson won the title of "Miss Cheerleader", at the Varsity camp. She was chosen out of 300 others girls.

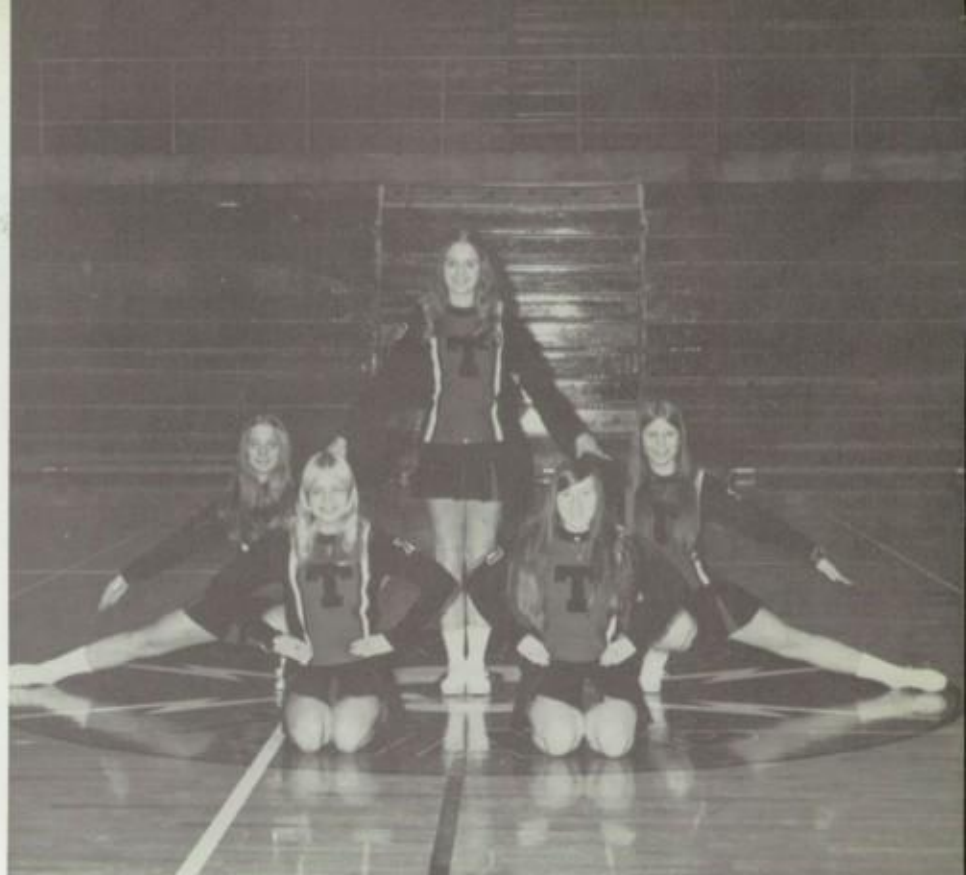

A new squad was added this year, the Rally Squad. This squad consisted of eight girls, who proved, by drawing crowds and rousing spirit, that Wrestling is no longer a minor sport at Taylor. These girls, too, did a fine job.

Art Students Attend Workshop

Last summer, seniors Renee Graef and Charley Polston; juniors Sarah Chaffee, Talie Gibson and Doug David attended a week-long art workshop at Ball State University.

The workshop offered drawing, painting and sculpture, and the students could choose the area of study they preferred. Participants worked on their projects at morning and evening classes. Afternoons were free for shopping, resting or visiting.

At the end of the course, students displayed their work for parents, classmates and instructors in an exhibit and reception at the Art Gallery.

The Industrial Arts Department had four photography students in this year's National Scholastic Art Awards Contest.

Barry Appleton, Jay Beckom, Randy Gray and Steve Larson received Certificates of Merit for their entries in black and white photography. Their photos were on display in the L. S. Ayres building in Indianapolis. They remained on exhibit for a week following the February 22 awards ceremony.

Randy Gray also received a Gold Key award for another photo. This photo was forwarded to New York for national competition.

In order to add a little variety to his classes, this year, Mr. Robert Hankins, 8th grade math teacher, introduced string sculpture to the Jr. High Math department. Mr. Hankins presented the idea to his five 8th grade classes as an extra credit project.

The sculptures were judged by a committee of 22 teachers and six winners were chosen. The winners were: Cindy Krill and Lane Miller, first place; Dusty Quinn and Kathy Ingels, second place; Sheryl Ustler and Rod Flint, third place.

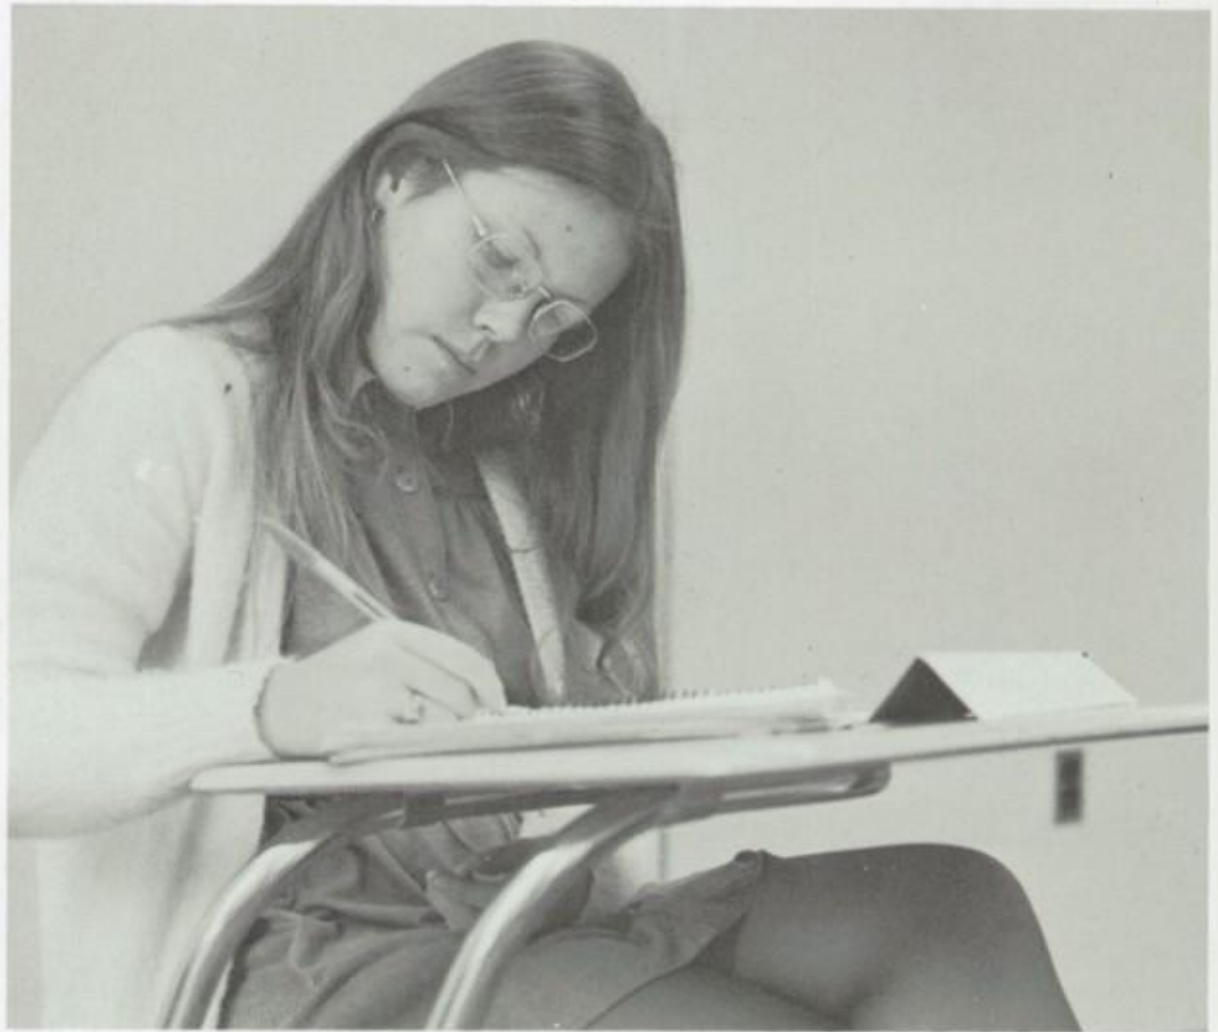

a/8th grade students show off their prize-winning string sculptures. b/Students await the good (?) news as Mr. Harmeyer hands back a test.

All Systems "GO" for Phase Electives

It has been decided that the English Dept. of Taylor will switch to a phase elective system next year. Courses will be nine weeks long, and students may choose from such courses as Poe and Twain, Word Power, Mythology, and Religions of the World.

Mrs. Inman's Spanish classes made pinatas and filled them with Christmas candy. The students broke the pinatas at parties that were held just before Christmas vacation.

Also, Mr. Clark acquired the language lab for the use of his French classes.

Science Courses Varied

Injecting chicks in Experimental Design, balancing equations in Chemistry, and dissecting frogs in Biology—these are only a few of the fields of study that students pursue in the High School Science Dept. Also, the I.S.C.S. program is proving to be a great success. Students work at their own speed, providing a more thorough and rewarding learning process.

a/Cindy Wilson, Brad Baker, Larry Griffin, and David Culross observe the behavior of their chicks and record the results in their lab books. b/Jim Meadors and Brian Taber "concoct" a formula during an experiment in Chemistry. c/Brian Snider and Jim Gamble inject their chicks with hormones.

Business Dept. Gains Machine

A mimeograph machine was added to the office equipment used in the Business Department. Students learned how to prepare stencils and run off copies on the machine.

Another different medium added to the Office Practice course was Data Processing. A practice set was used to teach the basics of this interesting new area of business.

a/Typing I students prepare to take a timed writing. b/Mrs. Moore shows Charlotte Jones and Chris Brown how to operate the new mimeograph machine. c/Connie Ward runs off copies of a test in Office Practice.

Administrators Issue ID Cards; Attend Meetings

With over 1400 students, the administration felt it necessary to issue student identification cards at Taylor.

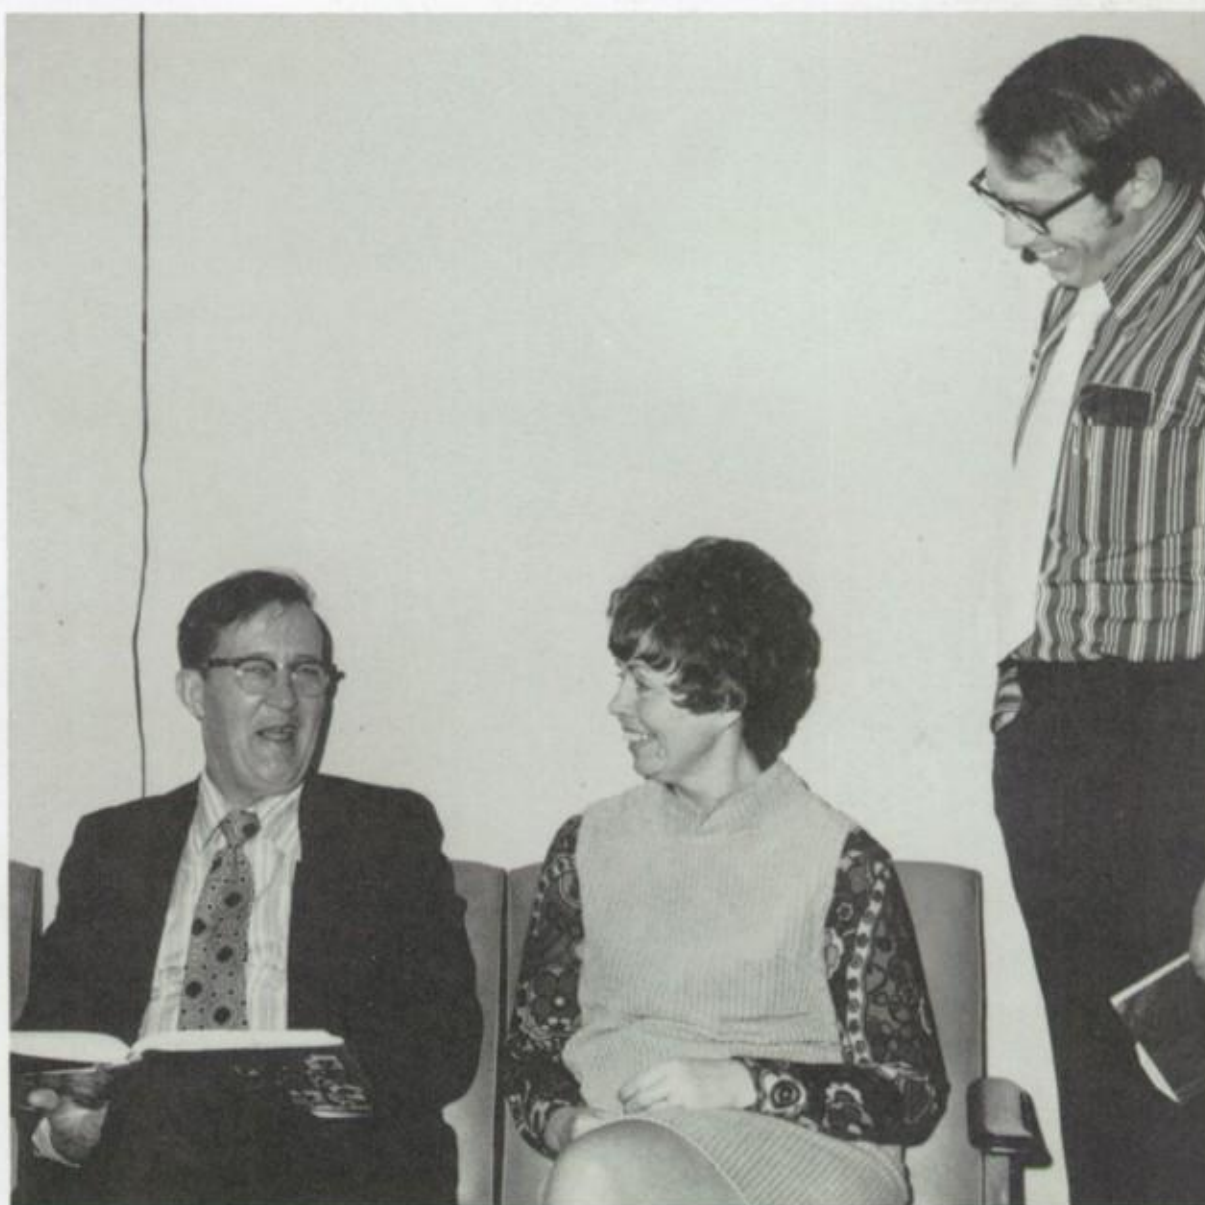

Donald Edmonds and Jerry Lamberson attended the third annual Assistant Principals Conference. Speakers discussed such issues as Student Rights, Management, and Collective Bargaining.

The Athletic Directors Conference in Fort Wayne attracted activities Director Larry Polk. There were speakers on Participation, Athletic Input, and Interschool Girls Athletics.

By attending the conferences, these administrators hope to improve Taylor to the best of their ability.

In spite of senior terrorism, the Class of '74 finally reached graduation. Seniors pulled such pranks as pouring STP and jelly down Senior Hall, putting vaseline on the door-knobs, throwing firecrackers and pasting stickers on the walls and lockers while squirting other students with squirt guns.

Seniors won first place in the Float Competition during Homecoming, and Donna Berndt was crowned Homecoming Queen.

Seniors Enjoy Playday and Other Activities

The Seniors began Senior Week by taking semester tests on Monday. Many Senior had to take the tests because they went on Senior "Skip" Day to the Time Trials in Indianapolis on May 13th. Wednesday at 9:00, the Senior Breakfast was held at Kings Crown Inn. At 1:30, the Seniors had to return to school for Honors Day. A very special honor went to Linda Randall. She became the first female ever in Howard County to receive the school Athletic Scholarship.

Thursday was Playday at Stellite Park from 10:00-3:00. Shaving creme, molasses, toothpaste, "Silly Strings", and dead fish added to the fun.

Friday, commencement practice started at 8:30 followed by the Senior Luncheon at 11:30 at Eagles Lodge.

Senior report cards were passed out before the Senior Luncheon.

Bud Hillis Speaks at Graduation

Taylor's Seniors of 1974 were honored with the presence of Elwood H. Hillis as their guest speaker.

Graduation began at 8:00, with Rev. Hughes giving the invocation. Nancy Bozworth and Suzie Kuntz, valedictorian and salutatorian, gave their speeches, followed by "Bud" Hillis' address to the Seniors.

"One Corner of Our Life Has Been Turned, But a Long Winding Road Remains" was the class motto chosen by the majority vote by the Seniors at a special meeting.

"Confetti" filled the gym as the Graduates turned their tassels.

Final Fling for Seniors

The Senior Fling was held about an hour after the graduation ceremony and lasted all night.

WIOU provided the top hits in music for the Seniors to dance to.

The Seniors participated in many activities including volleyball, basketball, swimming, card games, ping-pong, dancing, and, of course, they spent plenty of time eating.

The Senior Fling was the final activity of Senior Week, but all the times the Seniors spent together formed a great mosaic which will long be remembered by the Class of 1974.

The class of 75 spent many long hard hours working on the float for competition during the Football Homecoming activities on 1973. They lost their two year winning streak for the best float to the Seniors. Some of the Juniors also gave up some of the fun of basketball season to help sell concessions for money to go towards the Junior-Senior Prom in the Spring.

Sophs Sponsor Coat Check

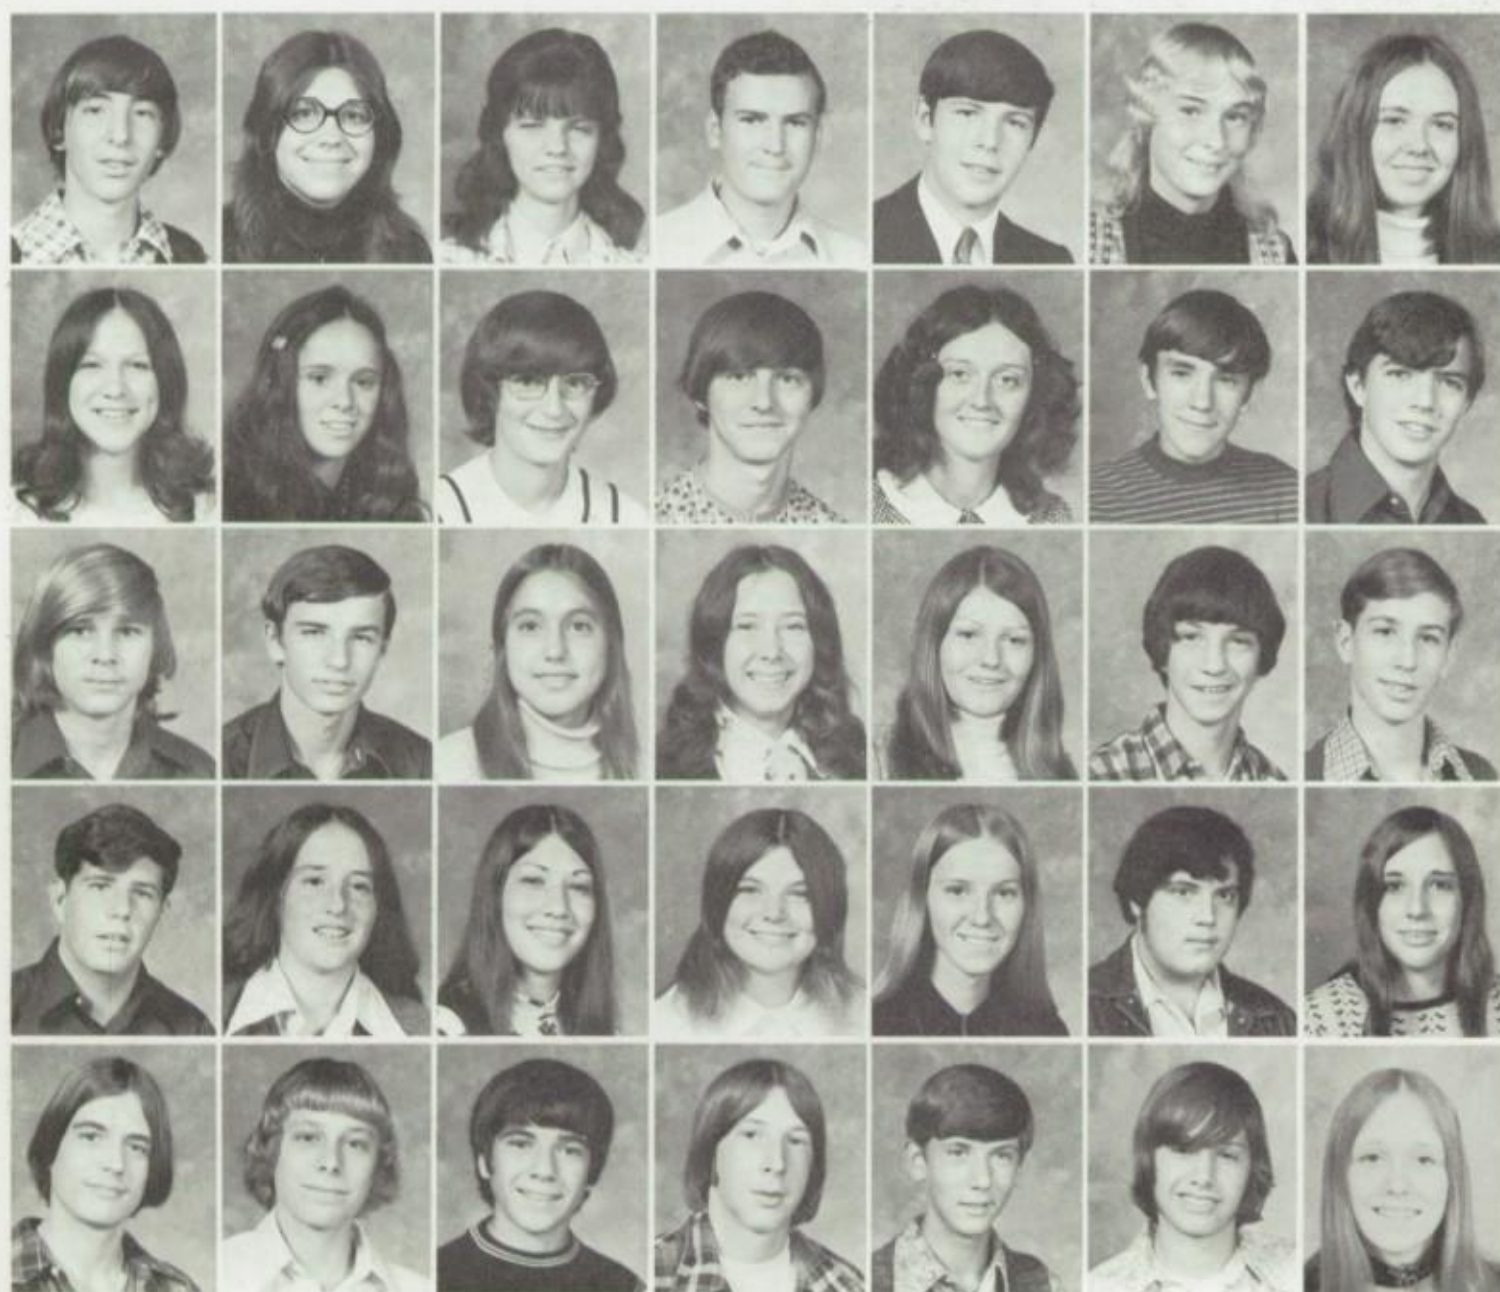

The Class of 76 earned money for their treasury by sponsoring the coat check. Many of the ambitious students forfeited watching the basketball games to work in the coat check.

The Sophomore girls were victorious for the second straight year in the powderpuff football game.

Both the girls and boys of the sophomore class anxiously waited through long weeks for the arrival of their class rings.

Chris Britton, Pres. Rose Mary Drago, Vice Pres. and Teresa Hewitt, Sec. Tres. set up racks before a basketball game for the coats of many spectators.

To put it literally, the officers of the Freshman class are really swinging, but this is just to symbolize that the great class of '77' had no trouble at all getting into the routine of becoming a part of high school. They were often excluded from pep sessions and convocations, because they were Jr. High. As usual, they probably felt neglected, but now they are part of the high school activities. For example, they spent much time designing and building their first float for annual float competition between classes during Homecoming Week.

Faithful freshman class members add the finishing touches to their float, before sending it around the football field to be judged along with the floats from the other classes.

Eighth Graders On the move

The eighth graders seem to be coming on strong this year. Not only did they have a fun night, and a great class party, but they also showed their school spirit by winning the jar competition. The class officers are, Pres. Steve Chaffee, Vice Pres. Dusty Quinn, and Secretary treasurer Sylvia Mason. The class sponsors are Mrs. Bordman, and Mr. Keck.

Eighth grade makes plans for class party. The officers are pres. Steve Chaffee, Vice pres. Dusty Quinn, sec. treasurer Sylvia Mason.

Each game was enhanced by the spirit of the cheerblocks with the co-operation of pep band. This year cheerblock gained a new look with the addition of new outfits. Cheerblock took part in and sponsored many activities such as a slave day, heart contest and dress-up days. This year a newly formed junior high cheerblock added a new dimension to junior high games and pep sessions. Pep band played at the games and pep sessions during the year. T-Club traveled to Indiana University for a football game.

Thespians Present "Mame"

Thespians this year put on two plays of which both had been Broadway hits. The plays were "Arsenic and Old Lace" and "Mame". Both plays were successes but "Mame" was the biggest hit of all. It was put on three nights. The first night was for faculty and parents. Then the other two nights were for everyone. "Mame" was an expensive play to put on but the money made by putting it on got the Thespians ahead. Any person who had earned 10 or more points was initiated. The awards were given as follows: Best Actor: Alan Hughes, Best Actress: K.C. Earle, Best Supporting Actors: Kevin Carlile and Scott Maple, Best Supporting Actress: Stacy Hart, Best Thespian: Katrina Bliss, Honorary Thespian: Brent Renfro. The club sponsor, Mr. Lassiter, was unable to be present for the picture.

Fifty-four Foreign Students Attend Taylor

During International week students who visited foreign countries presented a slide program and showed souvenirs of their visit.

Foreign Exchange Club sponsored the annual International Day at Taylor, with a record high of fifty-four foreign exchange students in attendance. The foreign exchange week consisted of a slide program, convocation, money jar competition sock-hop, and a reception for exchanges. The Foreign Exchange Club also sponsored two sock hops where the Lead played free of charge and distributed their funds evenly to students planning to go abroad.

Language Clubs Compete in Soccer Match

The main activity of the French Club was a trip to Clewes Hall in Indianapolis to see the Broadway Musical "Godspell." Many hidden talents were revealed by the language club members as they competed in a soccer match.

The Spanish Club was treated to a display of Spanish dances by Debbie and Bob Diaz at a few of their meetings. They donated the money earned by sponsoring a car wash to foreign exchange students.

Denise Dezelan and Kris Brittain practice for the soccer match between the Spanish and French Clubs.

High School Chess Club Undeclared

High School Chess Club: (Seated) K. Krise, J. Thompson, R. Swinehart, B. Steele. (Standing) Mr. Rose, C. Girton, R. Swinehart, B. Renfro, J. Long.

The Taylor High School Chess Club concluded the 1973-74 school year in victory. The team has remained undefeated, with chess matches against area schools including Kokomo, Western, Frankfort, and Tri-Central.

The Junior High Chess Club was organized to provide Junior High students the opportunity to learn the basics of chess. The members compete against each other during the year, and the year concludes with a tourney which crowns the club champion.

Junior High Chess Club: (Seated) Mr. Keck, J. Malkof, T. Worthley, R. Jackson, R. Jackson, K. Swinehart, R. Bomley, L. Miller.

NHS Initiates Thirty Eight

The National Honor Society chose 38 new members to form their club this year. They traveled to Wabash to the Country Village to hold their annual honor banquet. Each of the students were initiated in a candle-light ceremony at school. New initiates were chosen on the basis of character, leadership, service, and scholarship. The club sponsored a soc-hop to raise money.

Art Club Brings Christmas Spirit

Cindy Fisher and Jane Watson spread the Christmas spirit inside the school and outside by decorating the school windows with Christmas scenes for the Art Club.

The Art Club helped make the Christmas season jolly by decorating the school with winter wonderlands, candy canes, and sleighs. There was much work put forth by each of the members. Their work was displayed at the annual art exhibit and they took a trip to the Indianapolis Art Museum.

The Industrial Art Club took trips to the Coka Cola Plant, Chrysler Plant and to Greenfield Village.

The world outstretched offers all,
 The wind and clouds to you they call.
 The sky above, the earth below,
 The in between is for me to know.
 The shiny sun, the dreary rain,
 The happiness, the misery of pain.
 The people we meet young and old,
 Tomorrow, the future will soon unfold.
 Creating . . . a mosaic of myself.

It takes many people to make a good yearbook possible.

I would like to thank the administrators, teachers, and students for their cooperation and help in making these books very special editions.

I would like to give special thanks to Larry Glaze from Paragon Press, Ted Hitz from Hitz Studios, the 1974 yearbook staff, and a very special thanks to Mr. Gumz, our advisor.

Dear Debbie,
 Look who's big Snore
 now! And it still doesn't feel like it. I'll never forget you + all the mean tricks you, alone + Vicki pulled on me for the Shana Hogan fields. (C) I haven't recovered yet from spider fight.
 At any rate, I wish ya the best of luck always + hope ya got to do everything ya want. Remember to keep God ⁱⁿ!

We're SENIORS!
 Love
